

Shark sea

Salty sea with thrashing waves.
Scenting sharks, with razor jaws
Slash and swim through rocks and caves
Sensing food and chasing prey

Beware the brave and fearless fish
Grey black and steely fins
Seeking out its favourite dish
No other creature ever wins

Sharks are heavy hard and heartless
Humans fear this vicious beast
In the depths their hunt relentless
As they eat both fish and feast
