

The Winter Sea

The sea in winter is an angry bear
Roars so loud, it's hard to hear
That the miserable clouds rush out.
The grey, dark sea is rushing everywhere,
The wave is coming very near.

No-one is about
But the sea is on a lookout
To gulp someone quick,
The angry bear is clever and has a trick.
